Amendments & Agenda Changes	No changes.
Student Concerns & Comments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Senator Galhouse asked about lighting in BARC Parking Lot. President Hansen and Shayla McGregor responded that improving lighting in parking areas is being addressed by the ASUMW Committee pursuing safety concerns for UMW. • Vice-President Field noted that there have been more concerns about possible expired food at the Bark N' Bite. Nicole Hazelbaker explained that the campus facilities serving food all abide by charts provided by Sysco that say when things need to be pulled from shelf. These charts help when deciding "sell by" and "best by" vs. "expired by" dates. • Senator Partner asked where unused printing money goes from student printing fee. Dr. Hajduk responded that the money rolls back into the printing fund. • Senator Lehr noted that there was a broken paddle and cue stick in Game Room. • Wyatt Sarrazin reported that students have expressed concern over the temperature in Mathew's Hall Lobby. Many students have said the area is too hot and 	Theresa Galhouse Delaney Hansen Shayla McGregor Kelsie Field Nicole Hazelbaker Jessica Partner Dr. Hajduk Tanner Lehr Wyatt Sarrazin
